Dear Mr. Ourian,

On behalf of all of us at SHARE, I am writing this letter to personally thank you for the $200 gift you made to SHARE on 12/15/2009.

As a first-time donor to our organization, we want you know that it is only because of generous acts from large-hearted people like you that SHARE has been able to make a difference in the lives of women and men affected by breast or ovarian cancer. Your support makes it possible for SHARE to maintain its multi-lingual hotlines, provide survivor-facilitated support groups in English and Spanish, offer educational programs on cutting-edge research and treatment issues, and empower individuals and communities to speak out about issues of importance for breast and ovarian cancer survivors.

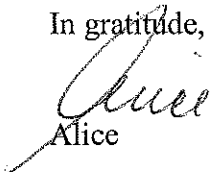

The greatest benefit of all, I hope, is the feeling you get knowing that you personally helped in the fight against breast and ovarian cancer.

Some very exciting things are happening at SHARE these days. I hope you will visit our website at www.sharecancersupport.org to learn more about what we're up to, particularly our efforts to raise awareness about breast or ovarian cancer through two special public education campaigns—SHARE's Novela for Breast Cancer Awareness, a comic-book style publication that explains breast cancer issues in Spanish through characters and scenes recognizable to Latino communities, and SHARE's Pink & Teal Seminar Program, where employees of companies throughout the tri-state area have the opportunity to discuss breast and ovarian cancer issues with SHARE survivors during lunchtime workshops.

Your donation makes our work possible. Frankly, we could not do our work without donors such as you. So, thank you for becoming a supportive member of the SHARE family. We, and those we serve, deeply appreciate your generosity.

Best wishes for a happy & healthy holiday season!

In gratitude,

Alice
